Terms of Participation

The Battle of the Bands will be broken into two separate events: an Amateur Competition, followed by a Professional Competition. The amateur competition will begin at 4pm, and the professional competition will tentatively begin at 7pm.

There will be 2 stages and a dedicated power source, to make band changes less stressful and less time-consuming. Sound production will be managed by Uptown Lighting and Sound (formerly Stanton Productions).

The Battle of the Bands will provide the following equipment:

1. All speakers
2. PA equipment
3. 4 microphones

A complete list of expected equipment can be provided, but is subject to change. We will provide a minimum 16-channel PA, so if you need more than 4 microphones and can provide them, you may use all channels available. The PA equipment should be in a position that you can simply plug in your amps before the performance, but if you need more information about the equipment, please contact Jason Carlton at 336 902-8163, or preferably by email at JCarlton@GoWilkes.com.

Amateur bands will be allowed to perform 2-3 songs (10-15 minutes), and professional bands will be allowed to perform 3-4 songs (15-20 minutes). Although this will not have a strict time limit, any band that goes way over without justification may be disqualified. This is an all-ages event, so we do ask for no profanity and no vulgar or suggestive verbiage or gestures.

Each band should have at least 1 additional song prepared in case of a run-off.

All songs performed must be original. No covers are allowed.

Contest will be limited to 10 bands in each event. If more than 10 bands apply, there will be a qualifying committee that will determine which bands have the best chance to win. If the committee rejects a band, then that bands full registration will be returned to them.

We reserve the right to modify these rules as necessary. In case of major changes to which a band cannot agree, we may offer to refund any application fees.

In signing this agreement, all band members release the Town of North Wilkesboro, Historic Downtown North Wilkesboro, GoWilkes.com, and Tiffany's Place from any and all liability arising out of or connected in any way with our participation in the Battle of the Bands.

Each participating band members must sign below. Any band member under the age of 18 must also include the signature of a parent or legal guardian:
